AI in Education: Resource Guide

Education & Teachers	- Diffit: article on a topic with sources, summary, vocabulary & questions. - MagicSchool.ai: lessons plans, assessments, misconceptions, rubrics - Magic To Do: Auto creates lists of tasks, re-writes text for tone - QuestionWell: Generates questions and discussion prompts - EduAide: Create lesson plans, resources, and assessments
Generative AI	- Bard: Sign up with a Google Account. Must be enabled by admin - ChatGPT: Sign up with a phone number and email address - Claude: Sign up with a Google Account, incorporates more data
Multimedia	- DALL-E: images from textual descriptions using various artistic styles - Dream Studio: develop highly realistic images based on text prompts - Slides.AI.io: generates slides (headings, bullets, etc) from prompt - Curipod: students submit response to AI generated slides
Research & Writing	- Elicit: surfaces academic papers based on research question. - Perplexity: Similar to ChatGPT but with sources cited. - Quillbot: assists with paraphrasing, synonyms, and re-wording - Canva Magic Write: Creates text based on prompt
AI Detectors	- AI Content Detector: To gain more functions sign up for a free account. - Crossplag: Provides a score of likely plagiarism from 0-100. - GPTZero: Determines perplexity (complexity) & burstiness (randomness) - ZeroGPT: Highlights text suspected to be AI-generated.
Articles on AI	- Planning Professional Development on ChatGPT - Suggestions for Addressing AI in the Humanities

*Please ensure the tools comply with your states' privacy laws before using them with students.

To contact Arpan Chokshi about facilitating your next professional development, please visit teachereflections.com.